

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, transportation has played a vital role in the history and development of our state and nation, helping move people and goods from one location to another; and

WHEREAS, whether traveling by road, rail, water, or air, people throughout South Carolina and the nation can choose from a large number of options in reaching their destinations or in shipping countless products that help generate and sustain our economic growth; and

WHEREAS, transportation workers across our state and nation are committed to trying to find ways to enhance our existing infrastructure while improving safety and protecting the environment; and

WHEREAS, South Carolina's transportation industry is committed to meeting the needs of every farm, home, and business in the Palmetto State; and

WHEREAS, Transportation Week calls attention to the importance of transportation to our quality of life while encouraging our young people to consider transportation-related careers.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 14 – 20, 2006, as

TRANSPORTATION WEEK

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the critical role transportation plays in safety, economic competitiveness, and the quality of life of the residents of the Palmetto State and to honor transportation professionals for their expertise in designing, building, and operating our
